Hillary Clinton delivers apology over Benghazi Hillary Clinton, who is running for president for the second time, is apologizing for the security lapse that led to the deaths of four Americans in Benghazi, Libya. The Benghazi diplomatic mission was attacked by an unknown group of people. Hillary Clinton apologizes: "What happened in Benghazi was a terrorist attack." Clinton's remarks come a year after Benghazi was the subject of a U.S. House Select Committee investigation into the Sept. 11, 2012, attack on the diplomatic mission in Benghazi, Libya. Clinton served as the U.S. Secretary of State at the time of the attack. The four Americans killed in the attack were U.S. Ambassador J. Christopher Stevens, U.S. Information Agency (USIA) Information Management Officer Sean Smith, former Navy SEALs Glen Doherty and Tyrone Woods, and a U.S. Diplomat who was a former Navy SEALs, and who worked for the CIA. Two former Navy SEALs were killed in the attack, and the State Department is accusing a terrorist group of carrying out the attack. Paul Ryan, the GOP House Speaker, has called on the Obama administration to submit a more detailed plan for how to better secure U.S. diplomatic outposts around the world. Over the past several months, Republicans have been focusing on Clinton's use
